Ryan Harms - Owner and Executive Winemaker

"Making crafted wines from Oregon that are affordable is the challenge we take on here at Union."

When Ryan first ventured to Oregon to test his feet in the wine industry as a curious young harvest intern at Rex Hill Vineyards, he knew he'd be back. And, sure enough, he is.

Ryan has since spent time working for some of the most well-respected Pinot Noir producers in Oregon's Willamette Valley, including Bergstrom Wines, Torii Mor Vineyards and Winery and Rex Hill Vineyards. And now, more than a decade after he got his first taste of Oregon's Willamette Valley, he has established a solid reputation for quality winemaking. Ryan's passion for winemaking and dedication to creating quality wines at a price that anyone can enjoy on a regular basis, led him to form Union Wine Company.

"We opened up shop and made it our mission at Union to pay close attention to the details, while leaving the fussy parts behind. By being efficient about everything, from how we set up the winery to how we make wine, we knew we could successfully create that marriage of craft and small-scale manufacturing. We chose the name Union to honor and bring together the diversity, spirit and character of Oregon that we love.

At the end of the day, wine is just a beverage. And then it becomes part of something greater. It brings people together over a meal, for celebrations big and small. And that's incredibly satisfying to me, and to all of us at Union."

Underwood wines work hard for the working people. Telling a truly Oregon story, the wines draw from vineyards across the state. Each site adds its unique mark to the final Underwood blend, which highlights the rich juicy flavors of Oregon at an extraordinary price. The perfect wine to enjoy anywhere, any day of the week.

Wine in a Can

"These are the most approachable and ready-to-travel anywhere wines we produce. Whether you're sitting in a hot tub after a good day of riding or heading where other wines dare not travel, we have you covered without sacrificing the craft taste Union is known for."
